the Registrar may direct the person to change the person's registered business name, and the person must comply with the direction within 6 weeks after the date of the direction or such longer period as the Registrar may allow in any case.

(5) The Registrar's power under subsection (4) to direct a person to change the person's registered business name applies regardless of — may, within 30 days after being informed of the Registrar's direction or refusal (as the case may be), appeal to the designated officer whose decision is final.

(10) To avoid doubt, where the Registrar makes a direction under subsection (4) or the designated officer makes a decision on an appeal under subsection (9), the Registrar or the designated officer (as the case may be) must accept as correct any decision of the court to grant an injunction referred to in subsection (4)(e).

23.—(1) Where the Registrar has reasonable cause to believe that any registered person is not carrying on business in GMC in respect of a registered business name, the Registrar may give that person a notice in writing stating —

(4) If the Registrar grants the application under subsection (3), the registration of the person and the person's business name is to be treated as if it had not been cancelled or had not ceased, as the case may be.

(5) Subsection (4) does not prevent the person from being prosecuted and punished for an offence under section 35(1)(a).

Registrar to rectify the register on such terms and conditions as seem to the court just and expedient.

(2) The Registrar must upon receipt of the order of the court under subsection (1) rectify the register accordingly.

Business Names Registration Act 2026

(6) The Registrar may include such notation as the Registrar thinks fit in the register for the purposes of providing information relating to any error or defect in any particulars or document in the register, and may remove the notation if the Registrar is satisfied that it no longer serves any useful purpose.

(7) Despite anything in this section, the Registrar may, if the Registrar is satisfied that there is any error or defect in any particulars or document in the register, by notice in writing, request that the registered person to whom the particulars or document relates, or the registered person's authorized representative, take such steps within such time as the Registrar may specify to ensure that the error or defect is rectified.

Request for copy of notice of registration, etc.
